

AFRICAN AMERICAN PARENT ASSOCIATION (AAPA)

Join the African American Parent Association (AAPA) as it continues to grow a caring community among African American parents and guardians of District 131 students.

The goal is to discuss topics unique to African American students, share information, and provide opportunities to bridge the connection between school and family.

For more information about the African American Parent Association, please contact: Iliana Rivera Nuñez, Parent and Family Service Coordinator at inunez@d131.org or visit www.d131.org/aapa.

2021-22 MEETING DATES
