National Bullying Prevention Month

Across the nation National Bullying Prevention Month is observed during the month of October. This is an opportunity for everyone to:

- Encourage the nation to take action at the local level to create safe and supportive schools
- Offer information and education about how everyone can prevent bullying
- Provide a platform to hold school and community events
- Share information about the issue through news media, social media, videos, and print publications
- Speak with education and public policy leaders about their roles in bullying prevention
- Promote dialogue between educators, parents, and students on their roles in addressing and preventing bullying
- Invite organizations to share information about their bullying prevention resources
- Inspire everyone to unite for kindness, acceptance, and inclusion
- Help create a world without bullying

Bully Report Form

If you are being bullied, you are concerned that someone else may be a victim of bullying, or if you have witnessed bullying behavior, please complete this form:
