Message from our Counselor, Mr. Thompson

IMSA Information: Parents, if you were unable to attend the IMSA Promise and Admissions Information Session last Thursday evening, I have extra brochures and information available. Please reach out to me if you would like any information and I will be happy to send it home with your student. See IMSA's Spanish and English presentation here.

Important Dates:

- IMSA Promise deadline was extended (current 7th and 8th grade students): January 14, 2026
- 8th grade high school course preview: January 21, 2026
- EAHS course selection for 8th grade: January 28, 2026

Rising Freshman Course Selection (current 8th graders): Course selection for high school will take place through Synergy StudentVUE. More information will be shared with parents at January's parent coffee and with students during the course preview on January 21st. You can preview student elective choices here:

Coffee with the Principal

8th grade families, you are invited to attend this meeting from 10:00 a.m-11:00 a.m. in our LRC on Friday, January 16 for a presentation from our Counselor, Mr. Thompson who will discuss with you the upcoming transition of 8th graders going into High School next school year with selecting their courses with East Aurora High School Counselors. 6th and 7th grade parents are also invited to attend this meeting. As always, you are welcome to ask questions to our Principal, Mr. Valek and our Parent Liaison, Ms. Hernandez will assist with interpretation.

Have a wonderful and safe winter break!

Brian Valek
